

I was born and raised in Crete, at Rethymnon town and I went to school in Heraklion city. After my graduation from high school, I lived, studied in Europe while I completed my bachelors and associates degree in hospitality management and in US. I worked abroad at international hotel brands and Greek hotel firms in city hotels and resorts. While I always try to find ways to seez my mind with my favorite activities to be the basketball and the tennis training. My Areas of strength are the Travel management, Corporate Travel, Group Leisure Travel, MICE, Business Development, Hospitality Industry, Leisure Industry, European & International Tour Operators, Revenue Strategy, Luxury Travel Segment, Global Distribution Systems. On 2011 I joined Metaxa Hospitality Group and from 2019 with the position of Group Sales Director & Development Consultant. The responsibilities include developing and implementing key growth sales strategies, tactics, action plans. Successful execution of these strategies is required to achieve the financial targets. Group Sales Director & Development Consultant duties include also hitting annual targets, building relationships, understanding customer trends, utilizing hotel Resources.