

.....

ANDREA MORGAN- SCHÖNWETTER

VP TALENT
ACQUISITION AT CARIAD, BERLIN

After studying business administration at the University of Regensburg, Andrea Morgan-Schönwetter joined Deutsche Telekom AG in 2000. There she worked in various functions and companies, at last she was Head of Recruiting and established a Recruiting Service Center for the whole Group. In 2019, she moved to Volkswagen AG, where she built up a central unit around the topics of employer branding, talent marketing, recruiting and selection before taking over the Talent Acquisition and Recruiting division of CARIAD a Volkswagen Group company in 2021. Since the newly founded software and technology company has set itself the goal of developing most of the vehicle software for the Volkswagen Group itself in the future, Andrea and her team are now responsible for attracting and hiring the best tech talents for CARIAD.